A Large half plate (4¼X5½) daguerreotype of Swedish Nightingale Jenny Lind, wearing a fancy watered silk gown. Very clear with good contrast. There is some light rubbing to the plate in upper left & upper right blank areas of background. Few scattered specks of tarnish. The rubbing does not stand out unless tipped to the light at the right angle. I was surprised to find that there are no images of her in Facing the Light. 3,250.

L I just purchased this a few days before going to press. Outstanding 28X38 full color poster by Lloyd, Russell, Landon. "Maj Gen George B McClellan For President of the US". Huge portrait, biography of his life & battles, nomination at convention. Near mint in black frame. 3,750.

M Wonderful 16" doll Daniel Webster at podium, blk wool suit, wht linen shirt, blk silk tie, papier mache composition head & hands, applied grey hair & eyebrows. Mahogany base & pedestal. Body appears to be stuffed with straw. Mid 19th cent. A marvelous conversation piece! 1,200.

N (Photo taken indoors in dull light - dark area is not on item) Very large multicolor stone litho poster by Forbes, 1896. In custom frame under plexiglass 46 X 85 (4 X 7 feet!) Generally excellent, a few small minor separations at folds. This is mounted in the foyer stairwell at our new home here in Gardner. This piece sold through a prominent dealer about 8-10 years ago for around $12,000. The New York collector who bought it had to dump stuff in a divorce sale, and it was purchased by me 6-7 years ago for a third of that figure. NOTE this cannot be shipped. I can deliver west to Ohio or south to Florida at mutual convenience. 6,500.

O Spectacular 26X37 inlaid marquetry wood panel in 32X39 burl maple frame. Ink colored woods depict scene "The Alabama or 290 Lying Too To Board the American Ship Lydia from Calcutta Bound to Havanah". Several thin splits from age, exc +, great piece of Civil War Folk art. 2,500.

After several years I have finally completed the move to my new home in Gardner, Massachusetts.
I also got married on June 1st, and a number of you will no doubt meet my wife, Patti, at various shows we attend. She's a real sweetheart, and she worked very hard on this catalog.
I couldn't ask for a better partner!

ITEM PRICE

1 The finest known Confederate D-guard Bowie knife. 18" clip point blade deeply inscribed "Manufactured by Wheat & Vandalson For W B Locke Aug 3d 1861." Other side "The Southern confederacy In pursuit of Abe Lincoln". Overall 23⅞", four finger iron guard. Original leather sheath is missing about 1 ½" at tip. Belonged to William Locke, who enlisted as a private in Co B Wood's Regiment Confed Cavalry on Aug 28 1861. The unit was also known as the 1st Mississippi Cav or Wirt Adams Regt. On April 17 1862 Locke transferred to the 10th Texas Cav, and later engaged Union troops at Murfreesboro and Atlanta. This is one of two Bowies known by Wheat & Vandalson. The other one is inscribed to Samuel L Johnson 1861, but the other side says simply " For Rights of the South", with no mention of Abe Lincoln. The other knife is several inches shorter and the condition is not as nice. Johnson also enlisted in Co B Woods Regt on the same day as Locke, so obviously the two men were close acquaintances in Mississippi prior to enlisting, and they no doubt ordered their knives at about the same time. I'm certain that the price I paid for this is a record for a D-guard, but I'm equally certain that no finer example exists. The reference to Abe Lincoln is unique for southern Bowies. If you want the very best - this is it. Excellent condition. 60,000.

2 Wonderful Hawaiian flag quilt 82 X 82, the four flags in RWB around sides. At center the Hawaiian arms are in white and orange with a thin red border, all on royal blue field. Generally excellent condition with bold presence. There is slight fading to the red in a couple of places, and some light browning in several of the white stripes (which could be professionally cleaned by a quilt specialist if desired). Late 19th century - a spectacular eyecatcher. 6,500.

3 Exceptional presentation eagle hilt sword, brass scabbard engraved with eagle medal of the Society and inscribed "To Lt Col Hugh Maxwell - Society of the Cincinnati". Blade with engraved and gilded floral designs with cannon, shield, liberty cap on pole. Fluted bone grip. Blade has a few minor nicks on edge, most of blue gone. Only traces of original silver plating remain on brass. Overall fine condition. Accompanied by biographical notes and an illustration of the sword (suitable for framing) from the book Hugh Maxwell American Patriot & Revolutionary Soldier, published in 1932, limited to 25 copies privately printed for Miss J Alice Maxwell. Maxwell was from Charlemont, Mass. He served as Lt of a company of Minute Men at Lexington, Capt in Prescott's Regiment at Bunker Hill (badly wounded), Major in Bailey's Regiment at Valley Forge, with various other Mass regiments till Nov 1783. Accompanied by various biographical data. The only Society of the Cincinnati sword I have seen. 10,000.

4 Carte de visite photo by Sanders & Stinson Gallery, Marysville. Elaborately signed in ink "J A Sutter". Excellent and ext rare. 6,250.

5 Elaborate 11" pewter water pitcher with chased high relief oak leaves surrounding wreath with circular panel, bust "Abraham Lincoln Pres of the US 1864", diestruck in relief. Above this are chased federal shield and crossed flags. Lid finial is a bear seated on rocks, probably to represent California. A Lincoln medal by Key (AL 1864-18ff) served as the mold to make a die to strike this piece, unless the maker had access to Keys original die. The latter is certainly possible since the lettering is very sharp, and even Keys name is visible below the bust. Please note that this is not a medal attached to the surface of the pitcher - the portrait/slogans are diestruck in the surface of the pewter. Of the utmost rarity, probably unique. One of the best items to surface at the APIC Convention in Las Vegas. 9,500.

6 Oil painting, personal swords and Presidential commission of Col Ichabod Crane, US Artillery, acquired from his great-great-granddaughter. Her name and address and various notarized documents accompany the group. He was born in NJ but served from NY. Military records included, very briefly summarized here. Enlisted Marine Corps 1809, resigned 1812, Capt with 3rd Art 1812, Bvt Major 1813 for meritorious service, transferred to Corps of Art 1814, Commander of Governors Island following War of 1812, 1st US Art 1821, Major 4th US Art 1825, Lt Col 2nd US Art 1832, Col 1st Art 1843, died 1857. The large, striking oil on canvas depicts him as Lt. Col of the 2nd Artillery and dates from the 1830's. It is unsigned, excellent quality, in fine gilt frame 30X35 (not shown). The painting was cleaned and a tiny amount of retouching done by conservator at National Portrait Gallery. Sword shown in center is a nondescript brass/leather hilt of no value. The other shown at left (closeup at right) is a wonderful quality 1st Empire French saber lion head pommel, fluted brass guard with lion quillon, langets have relief cast Hercules with club, partially blued blade with engraved floral and military devices. Checkered mahogany grip. Brass scabbard with two 6" long relief cast panels depicting camplife and battle. Generally excellent condition - light pitting near end of cutting edge. Comes with Cranes commission as Captain in the 3rd Art, 1812, signed by James Madison (laid down, light foxing/soil at top, overall VG-fine). I forgot to photograph the commission. Crane was a friend of Washington Irving, and Irving borrowed his name for the principal character in The Legend of Sleepy Hollow. A fine historical grouping. 18,000.

7 Classic George Washington inaugural button in superb condition, smooth patina, original shank. "Long Live the President - GW". 1,650.

8 Previously unseen early San Francisco medal struck in silver, view of Alcatraz island and Marin from Telegraph Hill area, sailing ships in water, "Excelsior" in sky. Reverse with elaborate intertwined monogram CNS (sequence unknown). Pristine condition, third quarter 19th cent. 600.

9 Large 1 ½" gold quartz nugget, weight 63 grams (just over 2 ounces) 1,450.

10 (photo didn't come out) Scarce nickel or German silver token with 19th cent locomotive. "Deadwood Central RR - Deadwood - Lead City - One Fare". XF 75.

11 Superb condition Abbott ferrotype "Hon J. C. Breckinridge of Kentucky". The only other one I've ever had sold instantly for $775. 750.

12 18th cent brass clip of unknown purpose "Liberty to America". 700.

13 Gold plated brass stick pin. "Jefferson Davis 1886" surrounding tiny felt hat on mother of pearl background under beveled glass. No doubt unique. 950.

14 1" ferrotype "Ellsworth the Martyr/Brownell the Avenger", super condition. 375.

15 Seymour-Blair jugate ferro stickpin in near mint condition. 875.

16 Gorgeous gold Fifth Corps badge, inlaid red enamel cross surrounded by 16 blue enamel stars. Reverse engraved "CW - Co H - 189th NY Vols". T-bar pin. 800.

17 Tiny ½" ferro clothing button "John C Breckinridge", few thin crazing lines in emulsion, quite nice, rare. 385.

18 Sapphire blue intaglio glass seal with portrait George Washington, artist signed "Harris". Couple tiny edge chips as expected. Great color, early 19th cent. 375.

19 Previously unseen Gem safety razor, deluxe model, in red/wht/blue box with portrait Coolidge, on side reads "Republican Convention Cleveland June 1924". Spectacular rarity. 850.

20 Pair silk pinholders, each two-sided, 3" long. Log cabin with coonskins on walls, barrel marked "Hard Cider". No doubt one of a kind, exc. 225.

21 3" tin mouthpiece, red lips with grinning white teeth, black highlights and lettering "Teddys Teeth". Super condition. The last one of these I saw was over $2,000. 1,500.

22 3" Grant "turtle" toy, cardboard figure mounted on nail, with moving head, arms, legs. 1,200.

23 Rare 1 ¼ Lafollette-Wheeler jugate 1,600.

539 Outstanding colored troops recruiting broadsheet 9 ½ X 10, on one side a full color stone lithograph of a white officer with flag and banner "Freedom To the Slave". Scenes at left show rewards of Union victory - black kids attend public school, negro farmer relaxes with paper and child at his feet. Officer stands on Confederate flag. At upper right black regiment advances under flag of "US Colored Troops". To right center a black soldier removes shackles from slaves. On reverse side "All Slaves were made Freemen by Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, Jan 1 1863 - come then, able bodied Colored Men, to the nearest United States Camp, and fight for the Stars and Stripes". John Brown Song below. This was posted and handed out in captured southern areas to induce enlistment by qualified slaves who were being forcefully emancipated. Minor corner crease in white margin only, near mint. 3,500.

540 Marvelous early broadsheet "The Last Words of S. Tully - Executed for Piracy, South Boston, Dec 11 1812". Woodcut at top with soldiers hanging subject from gallows, coffin with initials ST awaits him. Reverse side "Solemn Reflections occasioned by the Trial of John Dalton and S Tully for Piracy and Murder ... found guilty ... confined at Charlestown ... will be executed ...". Full length standing portraits of each at top. Heavy black borders, loss at upper right just into border (and into Dalton portrait on reverse). Waterstain lower right. Reverse has somewhat discolored old bookmending tape down vertical center, though it's just reinforcing some wear at fold and should be removed. Likewise for a couple other pieces of same tape. Printed by Nathaniel Coverly, Boston. 11 X 18 ½, framed under double glass so both sides visible. The condition, though quite acceptable, keeps this from being $3-5,000. Where will you find anything else for the execution of a pirate??? The text notes that 15,000 people witnessed the hangings! 1,250.

541 Wonderful 11" multi painted chalk bust, blond hair, blue uniform, gold epaulets, wearing Medal of Honor. Name in gold relief molded on base. Few scattered flakes, small chip on corner of collar. I almost decided to keep this for my own collection. 1,850.

542 Unusual 15" silver mounted side knife, 10 ½ triangular blade fully sharpened on both edges, checkered mahogany grip with wide silver band having engraved federal eagle/shield. 543 Extremely rare silhouette print "Captain Paul Cuffee 1812", from drawing by John Pole, engraved for Abrm Pennock by Mason & Maas. Born in 1759 to a slave father, he became a freeman in Massachusetts and took the name Cuffee from his Ghanian roots. He pursued a whaling career from New Bedford, and became the only black whaler Captain. A Quaker, he was founder of a black school in Westport. In 1811 he founded the Friendly Society for the Emigration of Free Negroes. He sailed to Sierra Leone and established the Society there in Freetown. He died in 1817, but the American Colonization Society was founded with the same goals. Only two copies of this rare print have been recorded. One is at the Whaling Museum in New Bedford. This second example was discovered in the Netherlands in 1960. Superb condition. 2,850.
